

M.A. in Applied Sociology Program Requirements

All students must complete the Methods & Statistics component, and select the Master's Paper or Master's Thesis option. The program is 30 credits total.

Methods & Statistics Component

- SOCY 600 Research Methodology (offered only in the Fall)
- SOCY 604 Statistical Analysis (offered only in the Spring; prerequisite: SOCY 600)
- Additional Methods or Statistics Course (either SOCY 618 SAS for Social Scientists or SOCY 619 Qualitative Methods in Social Research)

Master's Paper Option

- 18 elective credits (typically 6 courses)
 1. _____
 2. _____
 3. _____
 4. _____
 5. _____
 6. _____
- SOCY 711 Master's Paper Research (3 credits)

Master's Thesis Option

- 15 elective credits (typically 5 courses)
 1. _____
 2. _____
 3. _____
 4. _____
 5. _____
- SOCY 799 Master's Thesis Research (6 credits, over 2 semesters)